

Strain Relief on Receiver Cables by Andy Kunz

For all small cables apply Plasti Dip to the ends of the cable at the connector to keep the wires and connectors from working loose during flight and to act as strain relief while installing and working on cables in cramped locations inside the model.

Here is a sample of Andy's cables that he has used yellow Plasi Dip on:

